Price: $14.99

Contemplative early music at its absolute finest: the Sistine Chapel Choir presents a Christmas collection including world premiere recordings of works by Dufay, Allegri, and Marenzio. The album draws on original manuscripts from the choir's unique archive at the Vatican Library. It provides new perspectives on music written for and recorded in the Sistine Chapel itself. In a historic collaboration, Cecilia Bartoli becomes the first woman ever to record with the Sistine Chapel Choir, performing Perotinus's beautiful Beata viscera.
