Halftoys Dinosaurs are interactive puzzles crafted from quality-grade materials and are designed to keep little fingers busy and growing minds engaged. Safe smooth surface on the outside, fun fossils on the inside! Increase Problem Solving: This model was developed with children's learning and development in mind. Improve children's motor skills, cognitive thinking, and problem-solving skills with this minimalist and modern Ankylo puzzle. The magnetic outer layer of the model pieces together like a puzzle in order to build the full dinosaur fossil. Expand the Imagination: Each model offers a diorama for children to explore. Plants, a platform, and other unique extras are included in every individual set. Fun for Everyone: Children are drawn to the stylish look of the Ankylo model, and its durability makes it perfect for rougher play. Everyone from children to adults enjoys this model, as it can be anything from a learning tool in a child's playroom to a paperweight on a desk. Create Quality Time: Children, parents, and grandparents alike can experience the fun with this model. The diorama proves to be the perfect piece for all ages to bond over as it creates a play space for all ages of imagination. Keep Playtime Safe: The Ankylo model is created using the safest non-toxic materials including ABS plastic or PP. The model is designed for children aged three and up.
